

Curriculum Vitae

Jan Feldman
2020

Education

1977-1982	Cornell University--Ithaca, New York Ph.D. received February, 1982 in Government, with major in Political Theory; minors in Public Policy and City and Regional Planning (Developing Countries). M.A. received May, 1977
1976-1977	London School of Economics London, England Graduate study in the History of Political Thought

1972-1976

Summer, 1978	United States Department of Labor, Washington, D.C.; Bureau of International Labor Affairs: Project on Third World Rural Development
--------------	--

Fellowships and Grants

2018-2020 CAS Small Grant Research Award

2017 ASMEA Research Grant Association for the Study of the Middle East and Africa

2015 Rakin Research Award, University of Vermont

2014 ASMEA Travel Grant Association for the Study of the Middle East and Africa for the purpose of presenting a paper at the annual conference

2012-2013 RANSS Faculty Research Fellowship, University of Vermont

2007-2008 Senior Research Fellow, Brandeis University, Hadassah, Brandeis Institute

Competitive grant application. Several Fellows selected each year. Duties included research project mentoring and supervising graduate student research fellows, presentation to the Institute fellows at the completion of the term in residence.

2007

1999-2000	Visiting Professor, McGill University Department of Jewish Studies Montreal, P.Q; duties included public lecture, student advising, research
Oct. 1995	Visiting Professor, UVM/ Petrozavodsk State University Exchange, Karelia, Russia
1991-1992	Fellow, Russian Research Center, Harvard University competitive resident fellowship
	University of Vermont UCRS Grant
1986-1987	Lady Davis PostDoctoral Fellow: Hebrew University, Jerusalem, Israel competitive grant awarded to one candidate
1985-1986	Nominated by the United States Information Agency for Fulbright Lecturing Award U.S.S.R.(rejected by Soviet officials)

This book addresses the interface between positive (legislated) civil law and personal status law (religious) as it effects observant Muslim and Jewish women in religious polities (Israel and Kuwait) and civil/secular polities (the U.S.).

Book Chapters

Daughter of the Enlightenment "Bread and Fire: Jewish Women Find Gd in Everyday Life", Rivka Slonim, ed. (Urim: Jerusalem and New York) 2008

Liberalism, Chassidim, and the Challenge of Multicultural Accommodation". Book Chapter in. Ed. David Odescott, Democracy and Religion: Free Exercise and Diverse Visions The Kent State University Press (Kent and London), based on a

9/11.2003

Articles

(2020) Public Purposes at Cross

"Obzor Norm Uchastia Politicheskikh Zhizn v Rossii i na Ukraine", Khronotop 4:

( this article was also adopted as part of the required curriculum for the Graduate Training Programme,

Lecture by Invitation: