Applications should be in a standard font, 11 point or larger. Margins should be at least 0.5".

Students interested should include the following materials in their applications:
1) A 2-page (max) statement of interest to include:
- A description of their current PhD research with specific emphasis on rea   d   &

| | in a timely fashion with funding.

Strong alignment between the faculty and student interests. | lacking in some clarity.

Good alignment between the faculty and student interests. | Limited alignment between the faculty and student interests. | |
|---|---|---|---|---|