

Characteristics of Forage Legumes Found in the Northeast U.S.

Species	Growth Habit	Leaf Characteristics	Inflorescence	Image
Alfalfa Medicago sativa Tall, upright growth; Regrowth from crown area; Deep taproot; Flowers usually blue to purple; some types are yellow	 Crown buds		 Raceme inflorescence
Red clover Trifolium pratense Tall, upright growth; Regrowth from crown area; Types Medium Mammoth			 Compact head with reddis
Types Small Intermediate Large (Ladino type)	 Stolon with leaf and flower stem

Species

Growth Habit

Leaf Characteristics

Infloresc