

e n s . I n s

The statehouse bureau has operated since 2011 and has since been merged with a newer program called the "Experience Lab" for different communications majors. The class meets for 1 hour and 45 minutes every Tuesday. Professionals, many of whom are either retired or working in the industry hoping to hire students post-grad, offer mentoring and guidance such as line editing.

Jill Martin - jmartin42@unl.edu

Just around 100 outlets, some radio and TV but mostly newspapers, use their stories. At their height, they may have had 120 outlets. The number of stories produced depends on the semester. In the spring