

Online media platform with 5,000 plus readers that reports on the New York Legislature staffed by reporting classes of students in the fall and spring.

James Gormley, Program Director,
legislativegazette@newpaltz.edu

The Legislative Gazette

The Legislative Gazette publishes all of their content on their own website and does not have any agreements to share content with other outlets.

The Legislative Gazette is located in the Center for Research, Regional Education and Outreach (CRREO).

The Legislative Gazette has around 5,000 to 6,000 readers.

7,857 at SUNY New Paltz

12 in the partnership, per year

The student work is edited entirely by Gormley and he assists in assignments and story ideas.

Gormley is the director of the program and assists students with all aspects of their work.

The University funds the salary for the professor that runs the program. Until 2015 the Gazette was printing and running print ads, bringing in nearly $1.5 million a year. Currently, the paper is no longer printing or selling ad space and it is funded by the University and grant funding from the Knight Foundation and Ottaway Foundation.