

The Vermont Society of Engineers

Education and Research Foundation Scholarship

The Vermont Society of Engineers, seeking to encourage the development of Vermont's next generation of talented and dedicated professionals, welcomes scholarship applications from deserving students enrolled in an Engineering curriculum at Norwich University, University of Vermont, and Vermont State University-Randolph. Applicants must have graduated or will have graduated from a Vermont high school and must be in good academic standing. The amount of this scholarship is $2500 per year, payable in two installments of $1250 during the 2021-2022 academic year. Applications must be processed through the schools scholarship contact listed on page 2.

Name: _____ Attending (circle one):
Norwich, UVM, VT State University-Randolph

Address: _____

E-mail: _____

Most Recent Grade Point Average: _____
(Please indicate if GPA is for a semester or cumulative, college or high school. A transcript is encouraged.)

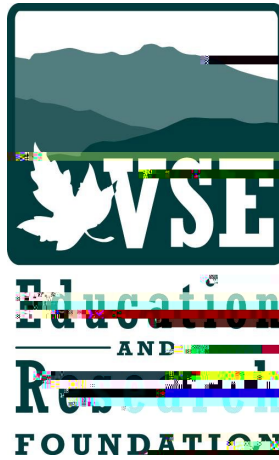

Expected degree and date (i.e., BSME): _____

Name of High School Attended: _____

To help us get to know you better, please provide a brief essay (one page) describing your interest in the field of engineering, and telling us how your personal and educational experiences are preparing you for your professional goals. (Please attach as separate sheet, resume or other information is also welcome).

Please return to your Scholarship Contact listed below by May 15th

Date submitted: _____

The Vermont Society of Engineers'

$2500

Education and Research Foundation Scholarship

The Vermont Society of Engineers, seeking to encourage the development of Vermont's next generation of talented and dedicated professionals, welcomes scholarship applications from deserving students enrolled in an Engineering curriculum at Norwich University, University of Vermont, and Vermont State University - Randolph. Applicants must have graduated (or have graduated) from a Vermont high school and must be in good academic standing.

Please contact your Scholarship Contact for an application

- Norwich University. Jane Davis Lane
- University of Vermont Cheryl Miller
- Vermont State University. Elizabeth Whooley

May 15th deadline