

What supports do VT farmers need?

Farmers noted that the three supports most needed for success were social media marketing and management, marketing plan development, and website management. The following shows the percentage of respondents requesting the top six supports.