

gr nb It gard ns on Isham Str t. (Photo: John

M ija)

The University of Vermont's Office of Student and Community Relations has received the Presidential Excellence Award from the International Town/Gown Association for its work on Burlington's Isham Street. The program that the office implemented there led to large decreases in noise, graffiti, vandalism and burglaries after it was launched in 2012.

In its award letter the association, the leading higher education organization focus

