

Career Pathways Leadership Training

Sunday, March 3rd Monday, March 4th 2013

CAREER PATHWAYS is a workforce development strategy that is ~~is~~ utilized to demonstrate how individuals can break into and move across industries. Through integrating core academic, technical and employability skills Career Pathways ~~highlight~~ ~~highlight~~ avenues for an individual's lifelong advancement. This program will utilize the Transportation Career Cluster by way of demonstrating the development and utilization of career pathways.

The workshop will involve 15 contact hours over two days. This program is free for qualified participants but space is limited.

Trainer Bios:

Carol Jurgens is a member of the CORD team as a Senior Consultant with expertise in building secondary to postsecondary transitions through career clusters, pathways, and programs of study. She is recognized for her leadership in the areas of workbased learning legislation, secondary postsecondary articulation, career and life skills assessment, and statewide collaboration in implementing career pathway programs of study. Ms. Jurgens was the State Director of Tech Prep