

Vermont Vegetable and Berry News –November 25, 2008

Compiled by Vern Grubinger, University of Vermont Extension

(802) 257-7967 ext.13, vernon.grubinger@uvm.edu

www.uvm.edu/vtvegandberry

MANAGING LARGE CRABG

The traditional mulching material for strawberries in New England is straw. Straws from wheat, rye, oats, or Sudan grass work well. Straws coarser than Sudan grass are not recommended.