

GRADUATE CATALOGUE

Students at the University of Vermont are responsible for their own academic and employment records. Students are responsible for their respective degrees as stated in the catalog.

The University of Vermont reserves the right to make changes in the catalog without notice. Students are responsible for checking the catalog and provided web site for updates and changes. The University of Vermont is not responsible for any changes or updates to the catalog that are not reflected in the provided web site.

The following programs are currently active and do not have a listing in the catalog. Students should visit the following web sites and do not rely on the information in the catalog. The following programs are currently active and do not have a listing in the catalog. Students should visit the following web sites and do not rely on the information in the catalog. The following programs are currently active and do not have a listing in the catalog. Students should visit the following web sites and do not rely on the information in the catalog.

GRADUATE CATALOGUE ADDENDUM

June 18, 2018

The following programs are approved by the Board of Trustees:

1. Ph.D. in Physics - For further information visit the Physics web site.

2. Ph.D. in Statistics - For further information visit the Statistics web site.

3. Ph.D. in Community Health - For further information visit the Community Health web site.

4. Ph.D. in Sustainable Enterprise - For further information visit the Sustainable Enterprise web site.